THE BIG SHOW COMES WEDNESDAY.

Interesting Endorsement from the Milwaukee Journal After Both Barnum and Ringling Had Been There.

The Barnum & Bailey show and the Ringling Brothers' circus had an advertising tilt in Milwaukee similar to the one here, and after both shows had been there the Milwaukee Journal said of the Barnum & Bailey exhibition:

Brief histories are often the best. Here is a brief history of the business done in Milwaukee by "The Greatest Show on Earth." There were two performances, each of which was witnessed by fully 15,000 people; in all, 13,000 people were turned away, 3,000 in the afternoon (the first time in the circus history in the Cream City that people were turned away from an afternoon show), and 10,000 in the evening. Such a business as this is simply unprecedented in the annals of amusements in this city. But the most satisfying part of it is that the show most unquestionably deserves the enormous patronage that it receives, its title is no empty boast, it were the height of folly to compare it for even a moment with any similar entertainment, and there can be no doubt that "The Greatest Show on Earth" still retains its easily its absolute supremacy in the sports of the hippodrome and all the other accessories of the modern circus. The managerie is better than ever before.

And as to the various riders, they are simply extraordinary! Miss Margaret Dorris is undoubtedly the most remarkable equestrienne that has ever ridden in America, and as for the trio of horsemen, Messrs. Mullins, Dabbs and the "low-where else has one ever seen, not one but three riders simultaneously performing the most difficult of all ring feats, that of jumping to the horse's back when he is "on plume carriere" without even assisting touch of the hand!

The great spectacle "Columbus" is by far the most elaborate and gorgeous of its kind that has ever been attempted under a canvas of a circus tent, indeed even in the most modern theaters with all mechanical and scenic accessories it would be difficult if not impossible to excel the magnificence of this succession of pageants and beautiful tableaux. Indeed, it is easy to see that there is but one rule that governs the management of this great show—"The best and plenty of it."

Lowest Rates to Washington and Return Via the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Ry. Tickets for this occasion will be on sale September 13-20, good to return until October 10. The largest shipment made by any Omaha jobbing house by express at any one time was made by Bates & Co. on Saturday through Wells-Fargo Express Co. The shipment was of fruit, candy and nuts and amounted in weight to more than two tons.

The novelties at Sherwood's are the finest ever shown in Omaha. 1st floor, New York Life bldg.
